www.mpmconsumerproducts.com

Founded in 1995, MPM is a specialised contract liquid fill manufacturer of household and personal care products based in Manchester, England.

We are huge supporters of British manufacturing and believe 'Made in England' means miles less carbon. We produce some leading UK brands for major retailers with personal care products such as hand wash, body wash, foam & cream bath, creams and lotions as well as household lines like antiseptic disinfectant and sterilising fluid and much more.

MPM is a privately owned company that provides bespoke solutions for its customers. It offers pro-active service in the development, manufacturing, filling and packing of household, automotive, pet care and personal care products.

Our extensive manufacturing facilities cover over 30,000 square feet with 10 flexible fully automated production lines (in-line), tube filling and 3 semi-automatic filling machines capable of handling both small and large production runs. Annual capacity is currently 20 million units per annum.

Manufacturing vessels and delivery pipes are all stainless steel and are positioned for accurate batch productions, enabling MPM to offer batch sizes vessels for bulk transfer direct to the filling lines.

This substantial range of advanced equipment allows MPM to manufacture most types of liquid, cream, ointment and gel formulations. Our filling and packaging are highly adaptable and can handle a diverse range of packaging formats and product types sizes from 10ml to 5 litres fills delivering the highest standards guaranteed for our customers.

MPM offers their own products which can be recognised in the UK high street and can produce customers own labelled products under their own livery from concept through to manufacturing. We also have our own graphic department available for individual brand identity.

Our aim is to provide customers with value added quality products and service their market area demands efficiently and develop long lasting business relationships based upon customer satisfaction, using our expertise, flair and flexibility to the benefits of our customers.
